

Important information for rail systems and their components

Colonial Elegance is not responsible for the effects of non-compliance with these parameters.

- Install indoors only.
- Do not cut or modify the rail and / or components.

Limited 1-year warranty

Rail systems and their components manufactured and distributed by Colonial Elegance are available with a one (1) year limited warranty from the date of purchase.

For rails, we recommend the installation of the solid wood blocking bracket for drywall applications. This helps secure your rail to the wall. Do not install your rail directly on the drywall unless it is securely fastened directly to the studs. Follow the instructions carefully to ensure the strength of the installation

Colonial Elegance warrants all components against defects in workmanship and materials under normal wear and tear for the limited life of these products.

The warranty will be void if the damage is caused by misuse, mishandling, improper installation or misuse, indirect or accidental exposure to water and / or other substance that may cause malfunction.

This warranty does not cover any labor costs incurred in removing, relocating or replacing defective products or parts of these products. In the event of a defect, malfunction or other failure of the product covered by the warranty, Colonial Elegance will replace, repair the defect or defect for free within ninety (90) days of receipt of the product, or refund the purchase price to his sole discretion.

To take advantage of this warranty, the consumer must have proof of purchase and contact customer service at 1-800-361-0230 between 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM EST Monday through Friday or by email at info@colonialegance.com

This limited warranty protects the original purchaser only and is not transferable. This limited warranty supersedes all other warranties, including but not limited to the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, and excludes all incidental or consequential damages.

Any product replacement authorized by Colonial Elegance will be limited to a product of comparable or similar style and dimensions and of equal value.

Rail systems and their components will be replaced in the original condition of the purchase. Colonial Elegance cannot be held responsible for the installation, suspension or any modification made by the customer on the original product. Transportation costs remain the responsibility of the customer.
